Grange

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Thursday night with the worthy master, Mildred LeBaron, presiding. Honored guests were Robert Ouellette, master of Sippican Pomona; and Roland Morris, master of Fairhaven Grange. The agriculture report in the State master's address was given by Dale Fearing.

The Home and Community Service report was by the chairman, Mrs. Olive Gifford. She requested articles for the Christmas boxes she is packing to be sent to the Grange boys who are in the service. The birthday of Joseph Furtado was recognized. The master, Mrs. LeBaron, gave a report of the State Grange session she attended in Springfield.

A money gift was sent to the Grange from Miss Mae Delano, past chaplain, in memory of her brother, Past Master Warren Delano, to be used in Sunshine work.

An invitation was read from the Woman's Club to be with them on their guest night November 21st. It is regrettable this is the same date as the Grange meeting.

Mrs. Ruby Barber is the visiting committee for November, when she will visit the Grange sick and shut-ins. The mystery package was awarded to Mrs. Ada Furtado. Mrs. Susan LaFleur will be in charge of the November 21st package. Donations are still being accepted by Mrs. Gladys Pearson of the Ways and Means committee for the Thanksgiving turkey; anyone interested please phone 6496.

The Lecturer's march prize went to Joseph Alves. America the Beautiful opened Lecturer Barber's program, followed by a reading, "Flanders Field" by Earle Wilson.

Two solos, "In Times Like These", and

"I Believe", by Walter Caswell were dedicated to the boys in the service. The program concluded with slides taken by William Smith when he and Mrs. Smith toured Spain.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Alves and her son, Joseph. Hosts for the November 21st meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Furtado and Mrs. Helmuth Heuberger, Jr.

Santa's Workshop

CHRISTMAS FAIR AT FAIRHAVEN CHURCH

Santa's Workshop will appear at the Unitarian Memorial Church of Fairhaven on Thursday, November 21st, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. in the parish house. The annual Christmas Fair is sponsored by the Women's Alliance.

A special feature will be a buffet luncheon plus dessert, to be served from 11:45 A.M. to 1:45 P.M. The menu will include escalloped scallops, lobster salad rolls, chicken salad plate, deviled eggs and home made pies. No reservations are necessary. Chairman and Jeweler, Mrs. Gordon A. Wright, will be assisted by members of the Amethyst Chain whose co-jeweler is Mrs. George A. Snedden.

STUDENTS VISIT INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICE

Thirty-five office practice students from Old Rochester Regional High School, with the Business Department Head, Mrs. Vera Jozefek, traveled to the Internal Revenue Service in Andover, Massachusetts. The group was given a welcome by Mr. Mannion, training engineer at the Bureau. A movie was shown to introduce the students to the procedures of the Internal Revenue Service. The students were given a tour of the offices at the Bureau where demonstrations of the key punch machines, tax filing, microfilm reading, computer tape filing, and computer cards and computer reading machines were given. A computer produced sign reading "Old Rochester Regional High School Welcome to I R S" was presented to the class. This valuable field trip will be correlated with a current classroom project relative to Payroll and Business Machines.

CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN

Dr. Donald C. Reusch, president of the Plymouth County Health Association, local Christmas Seal agency, has announced the opening of the 1968 Christmas Seal Campaign. In making this announcement, Dr. Reusch asks for the support of the residents of Plymouth County to this once-a-year appeal. Christmas Seal receipts are used to fight tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases, including emphysema, chronic bronchitis, etc.

In cooperation with other health agencies, boards of health, visiting nurse associations, school departments, industries, and the Plymouth County Hospital, the Plymouth County Health Association conducts programs in tuberculin testing and chest X-raying in an effort to search for new cases of tuberculosis among the residents of Plymouth County.

Last year, in this county alone, THIRTY-FOUR persons were admitted to the Regional TB Hospital with active tuberculosis. Through the chest X-raying programs conducted in the county, 49 suspected cases of tuberculosis were diagnosed, as well as a number of other respiratory diseases.

Dr. Reusch stated that Frank Blair, well-known television newscaster, has been appointed as the 1968 National Honorary Christmas Seal Chairman, and quoting from Frank Blair, said..."The fight against tuberculosis, emphysema, chronic bronchitis and the other respiratory diseases is not the sole responsibility of dedicated research scientists or highly-skilled physicians. Every American in every field of endeavor has a stake in this thing. It is for that reason that I've joined the ranks of thousands of other volunteers throughout the country who are working to make the 1968 Christmas Seal Campaign the most successful in history."

Dr. Reusch concluded by stating that Christmas Seals are an important weapon in the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases - and the help of all is needed in finding new ways to control these threats.

Anyone who did not receive Seals and wishes to have them sent is asked to contact the Plymouth County Health Association, Inc., Room 202, 106 Main Street, Brockton...Tel. 583-6512.

Junior Grange

The Mattapoissett Junior Grange held its meeting last Friday night with Master Mark Breton in the chair.

Sarah Dee Scarborough and Field Scarborough were taken into membership of the Junior Grange. Marybeth Breton, co-chairman of the Home and Community Service committee, reported a large number of cancelled stamps had been sent to the Mission in Waltham.

Robert Linhares reported on conservation, telling of the pine trees and its cones.

Worthy Master Breton presented State Grange checks to Robert Linhares, an award for the tablepiece he made of bark and cones; to Marybeth Breton for her beach robe and bag made of turkish bath towels; Kathy Buckley for the recipe box. These were projects set up by the State Grange.

It was voted to have the State Grange monthly news sent to the Junior master and lecturer. This paper includes news of the State, Pomona, Subordinate and Junior Granges and is put out monthly. Virginia Suzan was reported ill.

Lecturer Harris opened his program with "I Love My Flag", recited by James Livsey; a game, Still Pond, was played. Making

Evening of Folk Music

"BLUES, BALLADS AND GUITARS"
COMING TO ART CENTER

The sad, suffering sound of the blues originated in the slave societies of the pre-Civil War South. Ever since it has been a sound dominated by the Negro, and one that the South has claimed as inherently its own. Thus, it was surprising, not to say unique, when a blonde, deep-voiced singer from New Bedford, mounted the stage in Atlanta, Georgia and began a blues routine. At first the audience was skeptical, fearing ruination of "their" music, but when Barbara Carns finished her performance, she was greeted by unrestrained acceptance not only from the "deep South" audience but also from her fellow performers. With the background of the blues in mind, one can readily recognize the value of the following remark made by a group of Negro musicians after Mrs. Carn's professional debut: "damn good for a white woman!"

And so on Friday, November 22nd, Barbara Carns will bring her talents and her talented friends to the Marion Art Center stage. She has assembled a group of performers: Maggi Kerr-Pierce, Larry Hegele, Nonnie Pennington and Jimmy Maciel, who will perform with her during this evening of folk music which is entitled "Blues, Ballads and Guitars". The evening will feature not only Mrs. Carns' great blues and ballads, but also the local folklore, of the sea chanties, Irish, Scottish, German and Dutch folk song, and even some contemporary music.

A similar concert in 1965 was sold out weeks in advance, and another sell-out is anticipated. Therefore, you are urged to reserve one of the limited and exclusive seats at the Marion Art Center now by calling the Art Center (748-1266), Mrs. G. Campbell (748-0485) in Marion or Mrs. George Carns (992-0894) in New Bedford.

The faculty of the "new" Old Rochester High School has some very interesting and exciting plans and projects proposed for the students this year in music, art, drama, etc.

FORAM offers the parental support and co-operation to these projects, helping out the department heads and teacher where needed.

All adults are invited to join FORAM.

Don't forget the date - Thursday evening, November 14th, at 8 P.M. Please make plans to attend.

Instead of talking about the generation gap, and lack of communication between adults and teen-agers, let's do something about it.

This is an opportunity, in a small way, to contribute something constructive and positive. R. Floyd Empey, president.

BUZZARDS BAY AT THE BOURNE BRIDGE

choice of Richard Nixon, we once again demonstrate that the United States is the land of opportunity unlimited. Here is a man who rose on ambition and merit to the Vice Presidency of the nation and then was dashed to the depths of one of the most crushing defeats in history as he was defeated in the race for governor of California.

It was a long road from that low to this high. I, for one, feel much more comfortable with a man tempered in battle, familiar with defeat and with the raw courage to fight back to the top. I believe the United States' voters chose intestinal fortitude in the privacy of the voting booth. It's a good quality in a President.
